

Markets are expected to move based on the following developments –

- GST: Investors are waiting for more announcements on the GST, due to be rolled out from April 1 next year.
- Corporate Results: Next week will see a lot of important corporate results - L&T, Adani group, Axis, Idea, Rallis, Reliance Capital, Arvind, Asian Paints, Airtel, Crompton, Dr Reddy, HDFC Bank, IDFC, IDBI, Kotak, Cadila, Canara bank, Dabur, HDFC, Hero, HLL, ITC, ABB, Glaxo, Maruti, ONGC, Tech M, Colgate, Grasim, NTPC, and Vedanta.
- Global Economy: There will be some key global data on manufacturing and inflation released next week which may have significant impact if they are not in line with expectations.
- US Elections: The next major trigger for markets is going to be the US election on 8th November. Majority of experts expect Clinton to win but a win by Trump would be strongly negative for markets.
